

Register for Strength in Partnership: A Virtual Series on the Energy Transition in Texas and South Africa

The Texas International Education Consortium in partnership with Universities South Africa are excited to launch a free to attend five-part virtual series, as part of the Strength In Partnership: Adapting to Climate Solutions and Implementing a Just Green Energy Transition and Expanding Cooperation in Higher Education and Vocational Training Program. Read about our sessions below and register to attend!

USAF MEMBER INSTITUTIONS LED SESSIONS

Virtual Session 1

May 2, 2024 | 9:00-10:30 AM CDT / 4:00-5:30 PM SAST

Hear about the history of energy production in South Africa and the social and economic impact of the Climate Commission on the Just Energy Transition

Virtual Session 2

May 9, 2024 | 9:00-10:30 AM CDT / 4:00-5:30 PM SAST

Listen to a panel discuss the impact of the energy transition on education through curriculum and workforce development in South Africa

TIEC MEMBER INSTITUTIONS LED SESSIONS

Virtual Session 3

May 23, 2024 | 9:00-10:30 AM CDT / 4:00-5:30 PM SAST

Experts from Texas A&M University and Austin Community College will present on the history and current systems of the energy transition and workforce development

Virtual Session 4

May 30, 2024 | 9:00-10:30 AM CDT / 4:00-5:30 PM SAST

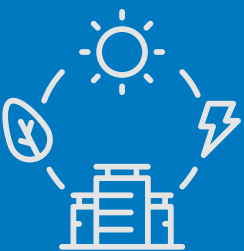

Hear from experts at the University of Houston, Texas A&M University, and Utopia Plastix discuss how to navigate the energy transition and apply sustainable business models

JOINT PANEL DISCUSSION

Virtual Session 5

June 13, 2024 | 9:00-10:30 AM CDT / 4:00-5:30 PM SAST

Join us for a joint panel discussion exploring partnership models in academia, industry, and international collaborations on the just energy transition

Register HERE to attend the virtual series

This program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by the Texas International Education Consortium